

Elita Turka Member of the Board

elita.turka@varam.gov.lv

+371 67026531

E.Turka holds a Master's Degree in Social Sciences from the University of Latvia, with a specialization in economics, financial accounting, control, and analysis. She earned a professional master's degree as an engineer-economist, along with a first-level professional higher education qualification as a legal assistant. She further enhanced her professional expertise through participation in the Senior Management Development Program, as well as studying at the Institute of Integral Education, the School of Public Administration and the PWC Academy.

Elita Turka brings with her a wealth of experience in public administration and the management of capital companies. She has held the positions of Deputy State Secretary of the Ministry of Culture and Head of the Construction Board of the Ministry of Environmental Protection and Regional Development (VARAM). She has been a member of the Board of the VSIA "Latvijas vides ģeoloģijas un meteoroloģijas centrs" and of SIA "Rīgas namu pārvaldnieks".

Since 2014, she has held the position of Deputy State Secretary of the VARAM, where her duties and responsibilities include the ministry's strategy development, oversight of budget and financial processes, and the formulation and execution of personnel policies within both the ministry and the broader industry.

Member of the Freeport of Riga Board since 2024.